

KEEPING^{THE} FAITH IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

BIBLE STUDY

Here's HELP for your family!

The new GATEWAYS BIBLE STUDY equips parents and educators to lawfully and confidently help public school students learn the importance of the Bible and Judeo-Christian history, thought, and values—all within state and federal guidelines!

This 10-topic group Bible study will equip you with the time-tested resources and relationship-centered approach developed by Gateways to Better Education—the nationally-recognized authority on helping Christians in the public schools.

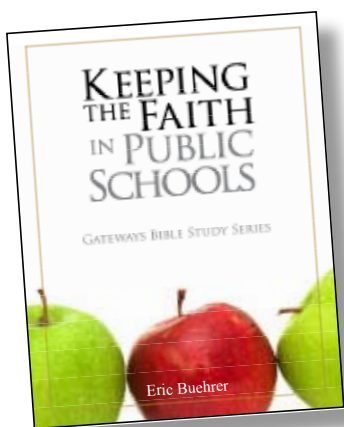

Now YOU can be a part of a group that is starting soon!

The Gateways Bible study is designed to:

1. Deepen your walk with God
2. Connect your faith to the culture
3. Equip you so your children stand strong in their faith at school
4. Give you practical ways you can encourage your children's teachers to appropriately and lawfully include teaching about Judeo-Christian history, thought, and values in their classrooms

Gateways Bible Study Topics

1. The Five F.A.I.T.H. Steps for Getting Started
2. Students' Religious Liberties
3. Teaching what it means to be "one nation under God"
4. Restoring Thanksgiving
5. Recognizing Christmas
6. Academic Standards & the Bible
7. Addressing a Concern
8. Resurrecting Easter at School

"The Bible study is powerful. It is easy to follow, spiritually enriching, and useful!"

— Dr. Jo Lamar, Associate Professor of Education,
MidAmerica Nazarene University

"I recommend this study to parents, teachers, children, small groups, churches and any organization that has children in public schools."

— Dr. David Draper, president of Winebrenner Theological Seminary

"The Bible study gives a solid biblical approach for expressing your Christian faith in schools today. I highly recommend it to anyone interested in having a Christian influence in their public school."

— Jim Smith, Executive Director of Conservative Baptists of Southern California.
